

Quality Improvement

The laboratories are committed to continual quality improvement programmes and promoting a free thinking environment amongst its workforce to ensure innovation and high performance are at the forefront of our services and the patients and service users benefit from the processes. User engagement and feedback sets the benchmark for quality maintenance and improvement and we welcome all approaches made.