

Business Continuity

The laboratories have robust plans to ensure business continuity in the event local or wider scope failures that could impact on services provided. The contingency plans are designed to minimise impacts on laboratory services and practices and to ensure that patient care is not compromised.